BAPTIST HOME, SEVENTEENTH AND NORRIS STREETS, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

LADY MANAGERS

OF THE

BAPTIST HOME

OF

PHILADELPHIA

---

PHILADELPHIA

HARPER & BROTHER COMPANY, PRINTERS

200 South Tenth Street

1903

The object of the Home is to provide for members of Baptist Churches who may, by reason of age, infirmities or poverty, become unable to support themselves. To do this, we ask for liberal donations.

We append a form which we trust will be incorporated in the wills, or as codicils thereto, of many members of churches, and others.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE BAPTIST HOME.

I give and bequeath to the BAPTIST HOME OF PHILADELPHIA, and their successors, the sum of .....Dollars, free and clear of all taxes, to be applied to the charitable uses and purposes of said Institution.

BY-LAWS

---

ARTICLE I.

The regular meeting of the Board shall be held the first Friday of each month at 11 A. M.

I. ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. Reading Scriptures.
2. Prayer.
3. Reading Minutes.
4. Treasurer's Report.
5. Report of standing committees.
6. Money received, bills presented, and orders drawn.
7. Reports from special committees.
8. Miscellaneous business.
9. Roll Call.

ARTICLE II.

At each annual meeting, the following officers shall be elected by ballot: President, three Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall serve one year, and be eligible for re-election. Ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The following committees shall also be appointed: On admission, on religious services, on the sick, on funerals, a house committee and work committee.

The President of the Home is ex officio a member of all committees.

ARTICLE III.

The President, or one of the Vice-Presidents, or a President pro tem., shall preside at all meetings of the Board, preserve order, appoint committees, call special meetings, and in all equal divisions give the casting vote.

ARTICLE IV.

The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Board, give notice of the meetings when necessary, and present the Annual Report.

ARTICLE V.

The Recording Secretary shall keep the Minutes of the Board and a register of the inmates of the Home.

ARTICLE VI.

The Treasurer shall receive all moneys collected or contributed by the Managers, and take charge of the financial affairs of the Home.

ARTICLE VII.

The House Committee shall consist of ten managers, who shall visit the Home each week, examine into its condition and see that the domestic affairs are conducted with due regard to neatness, economy, health, and the comfort, of all within the house. They shall also purchase all necessities for the Home, and make a written report in a minute book, kept for the purpose, to be read at each monthly meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE VIII.

A Visiting Committee shall be appointed at each meeting of the Board, to go through the House, and note any facts of interest, and make any suggestions to the House Committee they might think would add to the comfort or welfare of the inmates, the managers from each church serving alternately in the order in which the churches are printed in the Annual Report.

ARTICLE IX.

The Committee on Religious Services shall provide for preaching on the Sabbath, and prayer-meetings when convenient, and endeavor to procure Bible readers for the Home.

ARTICLE X.

The Committee on the Sick shall examine carefully into the condition of the rooms, and see that the nurses are efficient in the discharge of their duties.

ARTICLE XI.

The Admission Committee shall visit the person for whom application is made, and inquire diligently into their characters and circumstances, and report the same to the Board.

ARTICLE XII.

No application will be received but from churches in Philadelphia or vicinity, and made by the officers and lady managers of the church. They must testify that they have been members of the church for five years. A certificate from one of our physicians will be required to their being proper subjects for the Home. Applications must be made at least one month previous to their reception into the Home. Churches that are able will be expected to pay the funeral expenses. Those who have money or property will be required to secure the same to the Institution before they are admitted, and in case of their obtaining any after their admission, if they remain in the Home, it shall be made over to the Institution. The interest in either case will be given to them during their lives.

ARTICLE XIII.

Persons 70 years of age will be charged an entrance fee of $150. Under that age $200. None admitted under 65 unless special necessity calls for it.

ARTICLE XIV.

In case of an inmate becoming insane, the church to which she belongs will be required to remove her from the Home.

ARTICLE XV.

The officers of the Board, together with the chairman of each standing committee, shall constitute an executive committee. They shall meet at the call of the President, and shall have authority to enforce all rules and regulations of the Board of Managers, and shall report to the same.

ARTICLE XVI.

The payment of one dollar shall constitute a person an annual subscriber, twenty-five dollars a life subscriber, one hundred dollars a benefactor, and five hundred dollars a patron.

ARTICLE XVII.

The place of any member of the Board, who shall be absent from three successive monthly meetings, shall be considered vacant, unless such absence be satisfactorily explained.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The annual meeting of the Board shall be held on the day of the regular meeting in March.

WHEN, at the close of another year, we pause to look back over the months that have passed since the issuing of our last Annual Report, our hearts are filled with thanksgiving for the continued blessings and favor of our Heavenly Father whose "eyes are upon them who fear Him," and who "crowneth the year with His goodness."

He has promised that nothing undertaken for Him shall be in vain, and in the strength of that promise, so signally fulfilled toward us during the years that have gone, we gather courage to go forward in the blessed work of providing for His children, whose feet are nearing the border land of the better country, but who yet for a little while depend upon our love and care. May His approval during the coming year rest upon our efforts, and His peace abide in the hearts of those for whom we labor. We are thankful to God, and grateful to our many friends, that interest in the Baptist Home is not confined to a small circle, but extends so widely among our churches, and it is a matter of especial gratification that this interest is so beautifully exhibited by many of our young people.

What can be more in accordance with the spirit of Christian love, than that those in the early days of their religious life and activity should show a tender regard for those who, at the end of long years of Christian service, are cut off in great part from that more active church life in which once they delighted? It is with special pleasure, therefore, that we record monthly meetings held by the following:

Christian Endeavor of Memorial Church, Christian Endeavor of Broad and Brown Church, Christian Endeavor of the Fifth Church, Baptist Young People's Union of Central District, King's Daughters of the Fiftieth Church. Monthly meetings have also been held by a number of friends whose names we do not know, but whose interest we greatly appreciate.

Entertainments, which do so much to interest and amuse our inmates, and to keep their often necessarily secluded lives from becoming monotonous, have been given as follows:

On June twelfth, by Professor Weiss on his cornet; May thirtieth, by Mr. Lincoln and his chorus of fifty voices, also December twenty-eighth, by Mr. Lincoln and the choir of Hope Presbyterian Church. In March, August, November and December, by Mr. Jesse Thomas and his company of friends; by Baptist Young People's Union of the Lehigh Avenue Church, conducted by Mrs. Bright; by young people of the Bethlehem, Trinity, and Heidelberg Reformed Churches. On June third the annual Strawberry Festival was held, and was a great success, both financially and socially. On June twenty-fifth, our ever-generous friend, Mr. J. Y. Huber, gave his annual picnic at Belmont Mansion. Fifty of the old ladies were present. As in former years, the day was one of the greatest enjoyment, its happiness being marred only by the absence of our honored president, Mrs. Knowles, whose frail health made it impossible for her to come from Chelsea for the day as she formerly had done. On February twenty-second, the usual oyster supper was given by our matron Miss Heller.

Donation Day, November twenty-fifth, brought bountiful supplies of provisions whose liberality made possible a generous Thanksgiving dinner two days later.

On Christmas and New Year's Day the Lady Managers, as is their custom, provided a dinner of turkey and all the accessories suited to the holiday season. Thus these lonely ones who cannot now join in the merry-making of the family circle in this time of peace and good will, are brought a share in the cheer which comes with the birthday of the King.

Turning now to the condition of the health of our inmates, the situation is altogether encouraging. Our careful and zealous physicians, Doctor Elmer E. Hancock and Doctor Henry F. Page, still continue their noble service, and we owe them our heartiest thanks. There has been little serious sickness, and only three deaths, among which was that of the oldest of our household, aged ninety-nine years and three months, who since eighteen hundred and ninety has been under the shelter of the Home.

Among the managers, three have been summoned to enter into the joy of their Lord: Mrs. Major, of the New Tabernacle Church; Mrs. Hibbard, of the Belmont Avenue Church, and Miss Helen Fiss, of the Fifth Church. We know that they have but passed on to the higher life, and for them it is far better, yet to us remains the deep sense of loss, both in their beloved personal presence and in their earnest work for this institution. Especially would we speak of our dear friend, Mrs. Major, who for many years with unexcelled faithfulness, accuracy and zeal, rendered invaluable aid to our treasurer, Mrs. Banes, by receiving and keeping account of all the money taken in on Donation and Strawberry Festival days. Her passing from among us robs us of one of our most valued co-laborers. May God raise up another her equal in attachment and efficiency!

To the families of these friends we extend the full measure of Christian sympathy, and especially can this be felt by those of us who have during the year looked for the last time on earth upon the faces of our loved ones. Yet we have been sustained by the knowledge that we shall again be united, for He is "the resurrection and the life."

With much sorrow also we mention the serious illness of Mrs. Perot, our acting treasurer during the absence of Mrs. Banes on her world tour of Mission stations, and of her mother, our venerated president, Mrs. Knowles, who, since the founding of this Home, has with remarkable capacity and devotion directed its affairs, nourished its interests, and more than any other individual worker, brought about its present prosperity. May God in His infinite wisdom and compassion raise them both up to continue among us their work of love and power. And may this new year be one of the utmost consecration on the part of us who labor, and of prosperity to the institution whose welfare lies so near our hearts.

MRS. E. B. PALMER,
Corresponding Secretary.
